FROM OUR CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

Archbishop Carney Theatre proudly presents The Importance of Being Earnest by Oscar Wilde. It is the story of two young gentlemen, Jack Worthing (Valen Peyton) and Algernon Montcrieff (Joel Renaud), living in 1890's England who have taken to bending the truth in order to put some excitement in their lives. Jack has invented a brother, Earnest, whom he uses as an excuse to leave his dull country life behind to visit the lovely Gwendolyn (Keira Haley). Algernon decides to take the name "Earnest" when visiting Jack Worthing's young and beautiful ward Cecily (Alicia Malelang), at the country manor, and Lady Bracknell (Michaela Smith). Things start to go awry when they end up together in the country and their deceptions are discovered, threatening to spoil their romantic pursuits. The show runs March 6-8, 2025 @7PM at the Terry Fox Theatre. Tickets are $18 and are available at acrss.org

CATHOLIC PACIFIC COLLEGE

CPC3 Talk: "Redemptive Work: The Encounter of God in Daily Labor" Wednesday, February 26, 2025 at 7pm, Catholic Pacific College In his talk, Dr. David Henderson will look at the task of combining faith with work can often seem onerous, with many feeling that bringing God to the workplace risks being artificial, intrusive, and insincere. But what would change if we thought of God as already present in our daily labors, shaping the very ground that is work's fundamental nature? Dr. David Henderson explores the possibility of such a sacramental view of work in his reflection on certain key passages from the Old Testament. Inspired by the writings and witness of John Paul II, Dr. Henderson will challenge us to consider that the inner, sacrificial character of human labor already reflects a profound encounter with a divine work that precedes and shapes our own.
